Cyprus: Turkish objections to the UN mediator's report issued on 30 March have reduced chances for an early negotiated settlement.

The Turkish Government has stated that Galo Plaza exceeded his mandate by suggesting that a unitary state be created on the island, and says that it regards his status as a mediator "terminated." A Foreign Ministry official informally states that Ankara intends to make no use of the report and will not negotiate on the basis of the proposals.

The reaction in Greece has been generally favorable, despite dismay at Plaza's suggestion that enosis should be precluded. The Greek Government has indicated that even though it disagrees with Plaza, it thinks he should remain as mediator.

Greek Cypriot reaction is mixed. Those who have long been cool to enosis regard the report with favor. [REDACTED]

*East Germany: In an unusual announcement on 2 April, the East Germans stated that Soviet and East German forces will hold a combined exercise west of Berlin 5-11 April to be attended by "high-ranking" officers of the Warsaw Pact joint staff. The bloc military training schedule does not normally warrant large-scale combined exercises at this time of the year. The announced exercise appears to be part of East Germany's current propaganda effort against the meeting of the West German Bundestag scheduled to convene in West Berlin on 7 April.
